

Wyoming Counseling Association Fall 2013 Conference

Exploring Wellness: Connecting Mind, Body, and Spirit!

October 3-5, 2013, Jackson, Wyoming

(At Hotel Terra in Teton Village)

Meet our Keynote Speakers!

Brian Luke Seaward, PhD, Keynote Speaker – Thurs., Oct. 3rd

Brian Luke Seaward is a renowned and respected international expert in the fields of stress management, mind-body-spirit healing and health promotion. Additionally, he is an award-winning author, photographer, teacher, celebrated film director/producer and much sought after inspirational speaker. His mission, as expressed through his legacy of acclaimed books and public appearances, is to make this a better world in which to live by having each of us reach our highest potential. With an ear for truth, an eye for beauty and a mind for wisdom, the wisdom of Brian Luke Seaward can be found quoted in PBS specials, the Chicago Tribune, The Huffington Post, college graduation speeches, medical seminars, boardroom meetings, church sermons, and keynote addresses all over the world. He is respected throughout the international community as an accomplished teacher, consultant, motivational speaker, author, visionary, and mentor. Currently, he serves as the executive director of the Paramount Wellness Institute in Boulder, Colorado. Former Good Morning America host, Joan Lunden says, "Dr. Seaward's words have touched my life profoundly and helped me to find grace and dignity, the patience and compassion needed to navigate my ever-changing course. They have helped me understand that it is the way I choose to see the world that I will create the world I see." It's been said several times that Brian Luke Seaward looks like James Taylor, dresses like Indiana Jones, and writes like Mark Twain. In the role of traveler, visionary, mystic, healer and mentor, "Luke" has created a legacy in the field of wellness and health promotion for all to share. Jane Warren, PhD, LMFT, LPC, LAT, Keynote Speaker – Fri. Oct. 4th

Jane Warren is full-time faculty with the University of Wyoming Counselor Education program. She is a licensed in Wyoming as a Professional Counselor (LPC), a Marriage and Family (LMFT) therapist, and an Addictions Therapist (LAT). She has a PhD in Counselor Education and has worked as a counselor in the community mental health/addictions/family area for twenty-five years. Before becoming full-time faculty, she served eight years in the Wyoming State Legislature, thus having seen the negative impact of stigma on mental health and addictions policies. Her current research focus is experiential education, particularly in addictions, ethics, and understanding the internal dynamics of domestic violence. Jane will offer several presentations at the conference that address the topics of wellness, ethics, and advocacy.
